Justice Prince: An organisation with social value at its very heart

Justice Prince registered as a small Community Interest Company (CIC) in March 2007. Based in North Tyneside, our aim is to tackle social, economic and environmental disadvantage. We work with a wide range of partners to develop innovative community based services that increase training, work experience and employment opportunities.

Justice Prince: For guaranteed excellence in quality and customer satisfaction, with maximum social return on investment

We are a sustainable ethical company, with a strong proven track record for delivery. We actively promote high quality customer focused service delivery. We are proud to boast well established relationships with an impressive range of partners across private, public and third sectors.

Justice Prince can help you deliver award winning Corporate Social Responsibility as evidenced in our award winning Working Roots partnership programme. We have been identified as one of the most inspirational, fastest growing, women-led companies on the Fortuna 50 list for 2016.

We have a highly competent, qualified and experienced team led by company director Stan Timmins, specialist in Environmental Services. With over 40 years experience in landscaping and gardening, Stan is well known for his expertise in the North East, alongside presenting on BBC radio for many years.

In terms of social value, Justice Prince deliver a wide range of neighbourhood based gardening and growing projects, informal learning and City and Guilds accredited courses.
